1. She taught me faith
2. She taught me love
3. She taught me self-sacrifice

A bouquet of tulips in shades of purple and white, with green leaves, set against a dark red background. A small, rectangular pink card is tucked into the bouquet, featuring the handwritten text "happy mother's day" in a dark red, cursive font. The card is tilted slightly to the right. The tulips are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The lighting is soft, highlighting the textures of the petals and leaves.
